

Changes are taking place in the newsletter. The Communiqué, our traditional newsletter, will continue to publish on a quarterly basis. The new NOTES newsletter will come out more frequently—hopefully on a monthly basis. You will receive NOTES via email from ChimpMonkey as you did last year. You are viewing the September edition now. If so, and you are viewing it on your iPhone, you may want to click on the “Load All images” button at the top of the page. You can also view it on a desktop computer. For the time being the quarterly Communiqué will be sent to you as a PDF. It is also placed on our website at ccisStanfordU.org.

Volunteer Sign-ups

Many volunteers are ready to support graduate students as well as post docs and visiting scholars. The results from the recent membership letter show the response to requests for volunteering for our many programs. While the results have begun to slow down, as of August 21, the numbers are as follows:

CCIS Member sign-up Aug 21, 2018
